Being a nurse means something

ACN Nursing & Health Expo
Melbourne 2019
Overview

• The NMBA – who we are and what we do
• Professional requirements
  – Registration standards
  – Standards for practice
  – Codes and Guidelines
• Questions
Who we are

• the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (NMBA) regulates nurses and midwives
• we work in partnership with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA)
Partnerships in regulation

Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (NMBA)

Commonwealth state and territory governments
Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA)
Education providers
Professional associations
Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council (ANMAC)
All health profession National Boards
Nurses and midwives
Public
Health complaint entities and tribunals
Qld Health Ombudsman

All health profession National Boards
Commonwealth state and territory governments
Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA)
Education providers
Professional associations
Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council (ANMAC)
Nurses and midwives
Public
Health complaint entities and tribunals
Qld Health Ombudsman
What AHPRA does

• supports the National Boards in their primary role of protecting the public
• publishes national registers of practitioners
• manages the registration and renewal processes for health practitioners and students across Australia.
• manages complaints or concerns received in relation to health practitioners
What the NMBA does

• set evidence-based, contemporary standards, codes and guidelines for nurses and midwives to practice safely

• take action on behalf of patients, colleagues, managers who raise a concern about standards of care

• assess overseas trained nurses and midwives who wish to practise in Australia

• approve accreditation standards and accredited programs of study
Why we register

- Registration is more than a piece of paper
- registration lets people know that their nurse or midwife is qualified and competent to practise
- each year you are asked to renew your registration and declare you are meeting your profession’s standards
What does that mean

People place their trust in nurses and midwives

The NMBA exists to make sure standards and practice meet that trust.
Professional requirements

- Registration standards
- Other requirements under the National Law
- Standards for practice, codes and guidelines

Safe and competent practice  Professional practice  Protection of the public
Registration standards

5 mandatory standards:

- Continuing professional development
- Criminal history
- English language skills
- Professional indemnity insurance arrangements
- Recency of practice
Registered nurse standards for practice
Enrolled nurse standards for practice
Nurse Practitioner standards for practice
Midwife standards for practice
Fundamentals of Standards for practice

- broad and inclusive
- high level/overarching
- provide a framework for practice in all contexts
- no reference to single practice settings or roles
- reflect currently available evidence for actual Australian practice
Codes of conduct
Why are the codes important?

The codes

• support nurses and midwives in the delivery of safe practice as part of their professional roles

• provide guidance for the public about the standard of conduct and behaviour they should expect from nurses and midwives

• help the NMBA protect the public in setting and maintaining standards to ensure safe practice
Current NMBA projects

- Definition of Advanced practice
- Review of the Decision Making Framework
- OBA for IQNMs
- Review of Recency of Practice Registration Standard
- Registered nurse Prescribing
Questions?
Nurse & Midwife Support

- a confidential service, independent of the NMBA and AHPRA
- offers advice and referral on health issues to nurses, midwives and students
- offers information and support for employers, education providers and concerned others
- phone support available 24/7 nationally

www.nmsupport.org.au  1800 667 877
Where can I find more information?

www.nursingmidwiferyboard.gov.au

• presentations and videos available online
• consultations
• regular NMBA newsletters